

National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) Grant Projects, May 2010-May 2012

The Evergreen State College:

- Peoples of Washington Archive – digitize and create metadata for 500 images
- Women Faculty Personal Papers – archival processing and finding aid creation; preserve 25 reel-to-reel tapes; digitize 30-50 documents
- Washington State Folklife Council Archives – archival processing and finding aid creation; digital inventory; preservation of audio and video media; digitize slides, photographs, and negatives

University of Washington:

- Ruth and Louis Kirk Moving Image Collection – archival processing and finding aid creation; film preservation

Washington State Historical Society:

- Dorothy Sale papers – archival processing and finding aid creation
- Jackie Griswold papers – archival processing and finding aid creation
- Washington Women's History Consortium - website and Content DM maintenance; program development and management
- Jan Bianchi papers - archival processing and finding aid creation
- Lesbian Resource Center papers - archival processing
- Akitsu Club papers - archival processing
- Women History and Culture Center papers - archival processing

Washington State University:

- Intercollegiate Center for Nursing and Education papers – archival processing and finding aid creation
- Hilda Roberts collection – archival processing
- Women of the West oral history collection – enhance tape description; digitize select oral history tapes; add select clips to Content DM

Western Washington University:

- Women in Sport at Western – create finding aid; digitize and create metadata for 500 images and 500 text documents